

Exchange programmes SCMI

If your university has an exchange agreement with our School of Communication, Media & IT, you have the opportunity to join one of our exchange programmes for an exciting semester abroad.

Requirements

1. You can be admitted on the basis of an existing agreement and completing the application procedure.
2. All exchange students are required to complete the full semester (30 European Credits). As fellow students are depended on each other for projects, it is not possible to drop courses during the semester.

Offer

We offer the following exchange programmes (each programme consists of 30 European Credits) in the first semester of 2023-24 (which runs from the beginning of September until the end of January):

- The Campaign
- Journalism
- Medialism: Creating Short Films
- IT Management
- Brand, Design & Psychology
- Digital Product Lab
- The Future of Technology and Society

In the second semester of 2023-24 (which runs from the beginning of February until the end of June) we offer:

- Journalism
- International Aid & Development
- Medialism: Creating Short Films
- Organizational Culture & Change Communication
- Smart Energy
- Brand, Design & Psychology
- Game Design & Development
- AI in your Future Profession

Each year, the School of Communication, Media & IT welcomes between 150-200 exchange students. We look forward to welcoming many more.

What to expect

Internationalisation means meeting people from all over the world and sharing ideas. In our exchange programmes we do just that. You will be in classes with other exchange students as well as with our own bachelor students. We offer English-taught integrated programmes, where you will work in multicultural project groups. You will be studying in an international environment where you will meet students from all over the world. Our programmes are a mix of theoretical classes combined with practical work. A challenging assignment of a client will give you the chance to put theory into practice.

During your semester stay with us, we will offer you guidance and coaching. Starting with an introduction for all exchange students where we will explain our way of teaching, show you our BlackBoard system (digital platform for a lot of important information) and of course show you around at our school, campus and the vibrant city of Groningen.

We are proud to already have hosted over 2500 exchange students at our School of Communication, Media & IT. We wish to invite you to join us for a semester (or two). We guarantee you it will be the experience of a lifetime!
